

Counselling Program Fee Policy

All fees charged are based on a client's gross household income. If you qualify for the sliding scale rate, you will be asked to provide proof of income.

Fees for clients with gross household income under $60,000 (sliding scale)

GROSS HOUSEHOLD INCOME	GROSS MONTHLY INCOME	PER SESSION
Under $15,000	$1,250	$30
Under $25,000	$2,083	$50
Under $40,000	$3,333	$80
Under $60,000	$5,000	$100

Proof of Income: to qualify for the sliding scale rates, all supporting members of the household must submit ONE of the following documents. Supporting members refer to family members financially supporting the family.

1. Copy of Notice of Assessment issued by Canada Revenue Agency (from the most recent year).
2. Copy of all T4 slips (from the most recent year).
3. Four pay stubs from current/recent job.
4. Letter from Income Assistance or Disability office

Fees for clients with gross household income over $60,000 (flat rate based on BCACC recommended fee schedule)

- Individual therapy: $120
- Couple or family: $125

Counselling fees are based on 50 minute sessions. Fee Policy will be reviewed annually.

Clients are expected to inform our Intake Coordinator of any change of information.
Email intake@fsgv.ca or call 604 874 2938 ext 4141.

Cancellation/no show policy: FSGV has a 24-hour cancellation policy. Appointments cancelled with less than 24 hours notice are charged the total cost of the session. Missed appointments (no shows) are also charged the full session fee.
